Women Add 40 Millions to Loan

HE Woman's Liberty Loan Committee reported yesterday a total of $40,000,000 taken in during the first two weeks of the drive in New York. Mrs. James F. Curtis, treasurer, said that this total has been exceeded by the 3,000 women who are working day and night to bring in the money for the fourth Lib-

Among the largest subscriptions was $1,350,000 from the private schools of New York. This committee was given $100,000 as a quota, but soon multiplied that quota by ten. The Council of Jewish Women has taken in to date $1,213,000 from sixteen booths. The Women's Motor Corps sold $80,000 and the Women's Club oversubscribed its quota of $200,000 by $150,000.

Then, while Dr. Walter Damrosch played the accompaniment on a piano, Miss Margaret Anglin recited "In Flanders Fields." Mrs. Robert Bacon, who has four sons in the service, raised the gold star in honor of the 69th fallen heroes.

The "mothers of the 69th" raised more than $5,000,000 of Liberty Loan subscriptions in the twenty-four hours preceding the flag raising. The mothers themselves made additional subscriptions on the platforms. After the ceremonies the mothers mingled with the crowd in the square and escorted eager scores to nearby Liberty Loan booths.

A Call to Men and Women

The Red Cross needs your help in the fight against influenza.

All who can work will be of service.

It needs nurses, graduate and undergraduate, nurses' aides and practical nurses.

It needs women who will do domestic work.

You can serve either as a volunteer or for pay.
